

Over-the-counter pain relief medicines containing codeine
(in alphabetical order)

NB: Several of these brand names (e.g. Panadol, Nurofen and Solpadeine) include a range of products, most of which do not contain codeine. To avoid confusion, please use the full product names listed if referring to affected products.

Co-codamol

Codis 500

Cuprofen Plus

Migraleve Pink

Migraleve Yellow

Nurofen Plus

Panadol Ultra

Paracodol Capsules and Tablets

Paramol Tablets and Soluble Tablets

Solpadeine Max

Solpadeine Migraine Ibuprofen & Codeine Tablets

Solpadeine Plus Capsules, Tablets and Soluble Tablets

Syndol

Veganin Tablets

Of the 300 million packs of analgesics sold in the UK each year around 27million contain codeine or dihydrocodeine. A large proportion of over-the-counter sales of codeine analgesics are generic paracetamol/codeine combinations.

Further information can be found on the PAGB website at:

www.pagb.co.uk/codeine.html

Proprietary Association of Great Britain (PAGB) is the UK trade association representing over-the-counter medicines and food supplement manufacturers.

For further information please contact Claire Weaver, PAGB Communications Officer on 020 7421 9319 or claire.weaver@pagb.co.uk.